Isaiah Chapter 42 verses 1-9

I hope you have been reading the Holy Spirit notes and have done the tasks.

Like Isaiah, you are a daughter of God especially chosen by Him. Does that make you special? Think for a moment or two. What special values do you have as a unique person? You may not be a prophet like Isaiah but you are special.

Our pilgrimage or Christian journey this term leads us to growing in Spirit and nourishing our growth.

MEMO

A quiet spot and breathing exercises help you to relax, focus and try to avoid your mind to picture God's presence. Remember that we need quiet times. They do say that if you want to catch a butterfly, running around chasing it will lead to failure but if you sit down quietly the butterfly will finally sit on your hand.

The scripture gives us the feelings which we ought to have when one is a chosen servant.

My reflection should have had the following points:

1. I am special, God has chosen to seek my presence.
2. He has called me by name, appointed me as his special servant to do his will.
3. He is very pleased with me hence, he has filled me with His Holy Spirit.
4. I have been filled with justice, humility and charity or caring nature.
5. I am filled with hope and courage because he is with me always.
6. I have been given power to go out and make his covenant with all people.
7. I will fight all evil and bring light to his people.
8. I am daughter of almighty and I will glorify his mighty name because I am blessed and filled with His Holy Spirit which makes all things certain.

Well, if you focused on one or all of these in your reflection well, done. Remember we are looking at the gifts of the Holy Spirit and we have been chosen called by name. Psalm 139.

Well, now you can proceed to lesson 2.
