

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION GRADE 5
LOCKDOWN PROGRAMME WEEK 7

MEMORANDUM

LESSON 27: Forgiveness and Healing

TASKS TO BE COMPLETED

- 1 Think about something that you did that caused brokenness/division at home, or at school .

Now think of a way to bring healing, to make things right again. Underneath your heart in your book write down how you would bring about healing in this situation.

Write a prayer to Jesus thanking him for his healing.

Pupils own story and prayer. Read through your story and prayer again.

Your prayer should start with thanking God, then the reason for your prayer, and finally end with Amen.

PRAYER RUBRIC

CATEGORY	Excellent - 4-5	Good - 3	Satisfactory - 2	Needs Improvement - 1
THE WRITING PROCESS	Very well written, relates to the topic.	Well written, relates to the topic.	Some lines relate to the topic.	A few lines relate to the topic.
SEQUENCE	The prayer has a beginning, body and ends with Amen.	The prayer has a beginning and body only.	The prayer has a body and ends with Amen.	The prayer has a beginning only.
NEATNESS	The prayer is readable, clean, neat and attractive.	The prayer is readable, neat and attractive.	The prayer is readable and some parts are attractive.	The prayer is not neat or attractive.
MECHANICS	No grammatical/spelling errors	A few grammatical/spelling errors	Some grammatical/spelling errors	Many grammatical/spelling errors
Mark	20

READ the story of the 'Prodigal Son' [Luke 15:11-32].

2. Who is the father, and who is the son represented in the story?

God and us. Remember there are two sons in the story!

3. What in the story tells us about:

(a) the father's desire for reconciliation?

The father's heart was full of pity, he ran to greet him and kissed him.

(b) the younger son's change of heart/repentance?

When the son saw his father he asked for forgiveness from God and from his father.

(c) the joy and celebration at the son's return?

The father was so happy he organised a feast in his son's honour.

(d) the elder son's hardness of heart?

The older son would not join in the celebration. He also questioned his father's actions of forgiveness towards his brother.